RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION POLICY

(Effective from October 1, 2014)

1. Preamble

The Board of Directors of Siti Cable Network Limited ('the Company' or 'SITI CABLE') has adopted the following policy and procedures with regard to Related Party Transactions. The Board may review and amend this policy from time to time.

This policy will be applicable to the Company effective October 1, 2014. This policy is intended to regulate transactions between the Company and its Related Parties, based on the applicable laws, rules and regulations applicable to the Company.

2. Purpose

This policy is framed as per the requirement of Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement(s) entered by the Company with the Stock Exchanges and is intended to ensure proper approval and disclosure of transactions between the Company and its Related Parties. Such transactions are appropriate only if they are in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The Company is required to disclose each year in the Financial Statements certain transactions between the Company and Related Parties. Further a policy concerning material related party transactions is required to be approved by the Board and uploaded on website of the Company.

4. Policy

All Related Party Transactions must be referred for approval by the Committee in accordance with this Policy and reported to the Audit Committee at appropriate intervals.

4.1. Identification of Potential Related Party Transactions

Each Director of the Company and Key Managerial Personnel is responsible for disclosing (and periodically updating) particulars of his/her relatives and his/her interest in any other entity either as Director and/or Member and/or Partner etc. Additionally the Director and Key Managerial Personnel shall from time to time provide notice to the Board of any potential Related Party Transaction involving him or her or his or her Relative, including any additional information about the transaction that the Board/Audit Committee may reasonably request.

The Management shall compile a List of Related Parties in accordance with Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement based on the disclosures provided by the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel and other information available with the Company.

The Company strongly prefers to receive such notice of any potential Related Party Transaction well in advance from the respective functional teams so that the Audit Committee/Board has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction and consider approvals.

4.2. Prohibitions related to Related Party Transactions

All Related Party Transactions shall require prior approval of Audit Committee. However the Audit Committee at its discretion may grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company subject to conditions prescribed under Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement.

Further, all Material Related Party Transactions shall require approval of the shareholders through special resolution and all the entities falling under the definition of related parties irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not shall abstain from voting.

4.3. Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions

Related Party Transactions proposed will be referred to the ensuing scheduled meeting of Audit Committee for review and approval. All related party transactions carried out by the Company and covered under the provision of omnibus approval by the Audit Committee, shall be reviewed on quarterly basis. Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any Related Party Transaction will recuse himself or herself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction.

To facilitate review of each Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee will be provided with all relevant information of the Related Party Transaction, including the purpose, terms and details of the transaction, the benefits, rights and obligations of the Company and the Related Party, and any other relevant information. The Committee will consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the appropriate Related Party Transaction:

- Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on arms-length basis to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of any Independent Director;
- Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of, or in connection, with the proposed transaction
- Whether the Company was notified about the Related Party Transaction before its commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification is allowed and would be detrimental to the Company; and
- Whether the Related Party Transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the benefits arising there from to the Company or Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the director's, Key Managerial Personnel's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board/Committee deem relevant.

If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board, whether in view of internal pre-determined threshold or otherwise or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the considerations set forth above shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following Related Party Transactions shall not require prior approval of Audit Committee or Shareholders, unless the Corporate Governance Code of the Company require otherwise:

- i. Any transaction(s) between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary (ies) whose accounts are consolidated with the accounts of the Company.
- ii. Any transaction that involves payment of compensation to a director or Key Managerial Personnel in connection with his or her duties to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or associates including the reimbursement of reasonable business and travel expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business.
- iii. Any transaction in which the Related Party's interest arises solely from ownership of securities issued by the Company and all holders of such securities receive the same benefits pro-rata as the Related Party.

4.4. Related Party Transactions not approved under this Policy

In the event the Company becomes aware of any Transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved under this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Committee shall consider all the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the said Related Party Transaction. The Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such Related Party Transaction to the Committee under this Policy, and shall take any such action it deems appropriate. In any case, where the Committee determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without appropriate approval, the Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the transaction. In connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee shall have the authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

This Policy will be communicated to all operational employees and other concerned persons of the Company.
